

Ann Ropp | Resume

Ann Ropp has shown her paintings in numerous solo and group exhibitions both nationally and internationally. In 2004 her “Body of Water” series was shown at the St. James Cavalier Center for Creativity in Valletta, Malta. Her work is in the collections of the New York Public Library, The Evansville Museum of Arts and Science (IN), The Printmaking Workshop in New York, and the Tom Peyton Memorial Arts Collection (Alexandria, LA). She holds an MFA from Columbia University in New York, and her paintings have been featured three times in the annual anthology New American Paintings. She is the recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship and several artist residencies, including one at Moulin a Nef, Auvillar, France. She currently lives and maintains a studio in Johnson City, Tennessee.
